

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON
SENATE HOUSE
LIBRARY

Institute of Commonwealth Studies

Northern Nigeria: staff lists and memoirs (ICS179)

Listed by Thomas Ford

Reference	Dates	Object title	Scope and content
ICS179/1/1	1 st January 1964.	Staff List No. 11	Detailed descriptions of the membership of the government of Northern Nigeria. Lists members of the Nigerian government and then gives a detailed look of the members of the government of Northern Nigeria, their ages and the dates of their first and present appointments. It also lists any office previously held. There is also a list of salary groups. Note: the index is located near the beginning of the text and not near the end.

ICS179/1/2	1 st January 1965.	Staff List No.12	Detailed descriptions of the membership of the government of Northern Nigeria. Lists members of the Nigerian government and then gives a detailed look of the members of the government of Northern Nigeria, their ages and the dates of their first and present appointments. It also lists any office previously held. There is also a list of salary groups. Note: the index is located near the beginning of the text and not near the end.
ICS/179/1/3	1 st April 1968.	Staff List No. 1	Detailed descriptions of the membership of the government of Northern Nigeria. Lists members of the Nigerian government and then gives a detailed look of the members of the government of Northern Nigeria, their ages and the dates of their first and present appointments. It also lists any office previously held. There is also a list of salary groups. Due to the eruption of the Nigerian Civil War the previous year, the post of Governor has been replaced by Military Governor. Note: the index is located near the beginning of the text and not near the end.
ICS/179/1/4	1 st January 1967.	Staff List No. 14	Detailed descriptions of the membership of the government of Northern Nigeria. List members of the Nigerian government and then gives a detailed look of the members of the government of Northern Nigeria, their ages and the dates of their first and present appointments. It also lists any office previously held. There is also a list of salary groups. Due to the eruption of the Nigerian Civil War, the post of Governor has been replaced by Military Governor. Note: the index is located near the beginning of the text and not near the end.

ICS/179/2/1	1 st October 1963.	The Laws of Northern Nigeria.	Chapter 129 Survey Arrangement of Sections. It is divided into Preliminary and General Parts. The latter is highly detailed. Side notes are included in the margin offering detailed summaries of each entry. There are also a series of government decrees stapled inside the front and back cover, relating to the book material.
ICS/179/2/2	1956-57.	Annual Report of the Northern Nigerian Survey 1956-57.	The pamphlet is divided into the following sections: Staff, Technical Training, Buildings, Provincial Surveys, Topographical Branch, Air Photography, Cadastral Branch, Minesfield Division, Revenue, and Town Planning Branch. Some pages are loose. There is also some maps included, listing the triangulations.
ICS/179/2/3	Published in 1970. Photograph taken March 1962. Partial field revision June 1968.	Map of Kano Nigeria.	At a 1:12,500 scale. Some annotations.
ICS/179/2/4	Drawn, printed and published in 1955.	Road map of Nigeria.	At a 1:1,750,000 or 1 inch to 27.62 miles. 2500/306/4-56. Some roads revised in 1954. Provisional edition. No annotations.
ICS/179/2/5	1972.	Street guide to Lagos	Contains a full map of the city and four smaller maps of Lagos Island, the Industrial Area, the Civic Centre and the Main Shopping Area. The full map is at a 1:20,000 scale, the Civic Centre and the Main Shopping Centre 1:4,800, the Industrial Area 1:12,500 and Lagos Island 1:10,000. The Sixth Edition. No annotations.
ICS/179/2/6	1967.	Map of Sokoto.	At a 1:12,500 scale. No annotations.
ICS/179/2/7	1969.	Ibadan Guide Map.	On the reverse side is a map of the Commercial Centre and Adjoining Areas. The guide map is at a scale of 1:20,000, and the Commercial Centre and Adjoining Areas map is at a scale of 1:5000.

ICS/179/2/8	1964.	Road Map of Nigeria.	At a 1:1,585,000 or 1 inch to 25 miles. Some locations highlighted and written in.
ICS/179/2/9	Date not found.	Naraguta N.E.	A detailed map. Note, though its legend refers to certain parts highlighted in red, this map was clearly copied in black and white, so it is of little help.
ICS/179/2/10	Date not found.	North-Eastern State.	Index to Medium Scale Maps. In colour. No annotations.
ICS/179/2/11	Date not found.	North-Eastern State.	Has a scale in miles. In black and white. No annotations.
ICS/179/2/12	1965.	Map of Jos.	At a 1:12500 scale. In colour. Printed in the style of an ordnance survey map. Includes a legend. No annotations.
ICS/179/2/13	1969.	Map of Kaduna. Street plan and visitor's guide.	At a 1:125,000 scale. In colour. Proof copy. No annotations.
ICS/179/2/14	No date found.	Kaduna Central Area.	At a scale of 1:4800. In colour. Very detailed.
ICS/179/2/15	1964	Northern Nigeria Road Mileage Map.	At a scale of 1:4,000,000. In colour. Annotated in great detail.
ICS/179/2/16	No date found.	Nigeria Jemaa Composite Sheet.	At a scale of 1:125,000. In colour. Extremely detailed with a legend attached. Annotated.
ICS/179/2/17	No date found.	Two articles from Hovercraft on Lake Chad.	The first one is called Plant life of sandbanks and papyrus swamps by F. Nigel Hepper and the second is called Wildlife of a savannah region by C. Hilary Fry. Includes images of Nigeria.
ICS/179/3	Written in 1964, published in 2008.	Nigerian Gypsies by Joan Butler.	It is very detailed, with more than a hundred pages. It also includes illustrations (some black and white and some coloured) and offers a highly detailed account of their travels. Some annotations included.

ICS/179/4	Written in 2004, published with corrections in 2005.	The Geographic Labourers of Arewa - Remembering the Northern Nigerian Survey. Recollections of Land Surveying, Mapping and related activities in the pre and post-independence Northern Nigeria, concentrating on the work of the Survey Department on Northern Nigeria (Northern Nigeria Survey) during the 1950s and 1960s. Edited by Michael Anderson.	Note, it only contains the introduction and the illustrations of the book. The introduction is reasonably detailed, and the collection of photographs is comprehensive. The quality of the photos varies. Some are black and white and some are colour. There are some annotations.
ICS/179/5	Written in 1990.	Where my Caravan has Rested - A Nigerian Diary by Eleanora Hunter.	The diary lasts from 13 th August 1946 to 22 nd August 1947. There are some photographs that are in black and white. It is very comprehensive.